Dear General Walters:

We are looking forward to your joining us at the White House Correspondents' Association Annual Dinner for the President on Saturday evening, April 29, at the Washington Hilton Hotel.

We will meet at my home, [redacted] (map enclosed), at six o'clock for a drink before proceeding to the dinner. For your convenience, and to avoid the traffic jam at the Hilton's parking garage, transportation will be provided to the hotel and return to [redacted] after the dinner ends to pick up your car.

Dear General Walters:

I am delighted to learn from Charles Murphy that you will be able to join the Reader's Digest group at the annual dinner given by the White House Correspondents' Association in honor of the President. This year it is being held on Saturday evening, April 29, at the Washington Hilton Hotel. The dinner is black tie and begins at seven-thirty. A reception is held before the dinner, beginning at six-thirty. Other details will be sent to you before the 29th.

We are honored that you can be with us on this occasion.

Sincerely,

Major General Vernon A. Walters
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505
